1.0 Introduction

Visiting Keyshaw Markets website with your browser settings adjusted to accept cookies or using Keyshaw Markets devices, mobile apps, or other software tells us that you want to use Keyshaw Markets' products and services and that you consent to our use of cookies and other technologies to provide them to you as described in this notice. See below for information on how to modify the settings in your device to notify you when you receive a new cookie and disable cookies altogether.

2.0 What are cookies and how do we use them?

Cookies are unique identifiers (small files) that are transferred to your device and enable our systems to recognise your device. For more information see aboutcookies.org. Using cookies allows us to:

- identify you when you sign-in and remember your login details
- determine the type of browser and settings you are using
- prevent fraudulent activity and enhance security
- conduct research and diagnostics to improve Keyshaw Markets content, products and services
- allow site owners and third-party advertisers to adjust content to your preferences
- monitor visits, performance and errors in order to provide efficient work of our websites

Any reference to "sites" of Keyshaw Markets includes our Keyshaw Markets websites, devices, mobile apps or other software.

3.0 The types of cookies we use on our website

Essential Cookies

Necessary for the vital functions of our site and trading platform. If these are disabled, you won't be able to access the platform or other important parts of the site.

Marketing Cookies

Enabling you to experience more relevant online content and see adverts which are aligned with your interests, as indicated by your activity on our site. Where cookies have collected your data, we have endeavoured to ensure that the information they collect is anonymised.

Behavioural and Analytical Cookies

Helping us provide you with a better service. They can tailor site content to your personal preferences and past behaviour, or remember your saved settings.

Other Cookies

Third party cookies of companies we involve to perform our marketing initiatives and enhance your user experience. The data collected by these cookies is anonymised and in case of any changes, we will endeavour to notify you about it.

Please note that cookies allow you to get the utmost experience with our website, its products and application process. If you do not accept our Cookie Policy to be used or set your browser settings such that it does not accept our cookies, then you may be unable to access some of the website functionalities or services.

4.0 Cookies and browser settings

The Help feature on most browsers will tell you how to prevent your browser from accepting new cookies, how to have the browser notify you when you receive a new cookie and how to disable cookies altogether. Additionally, you can disable or delete similar data used by browser add-ons, by changing the add-on's settings or visiting the website of its manufacturer.

We are committed to protecting your personal information. If you have any specific questions or concerns about cookies, please contact info@keyshawmarkets.com.

For more information on how we handle your data, see our Privacy Policy.
